ASSISTANCE

ASSISTANCE SERVICE

European Fellowship Assistance Service provides support to international participants attending locally run events in member organisations.

We will provide training, resources and materials to help organisations support international participants.

Organisations will provide volunteers and overall management of the service at the event.

The Assistance Service is a voluntary scheme, and is not a requirement for an Event, or needs to be used by member organisations if provided by host.

Requirements.

- An event that has a minimum 100 expected participants locally.
- A local contact who will co-ordinate the Assistance Service at the event.
- English language programme material available for international participants.
- Suitable accommodation for international participants.
- A suitable ratio of local trained volunteers to supervise, support and communicate with international participants.
- Suitable transport provision for international participants, directly or through guidance materials and support.

ASSISTANCE SERVICE

Partnership.

- Joint working between organisational contact for the event and the Chairmanship to promote the event and source participants from EF organisations.
- Training organised by European Fellowship and provided to host organisation to be able to facilitate the Assistance Service. Training to be facilitated by most appropriate method, as determined by the Chairmanship.
- Open dialogue before, during and after event to make sure the Assistance Service runs effectively.
